dst – vivos nas livrarias

Livraria Arquivo, in Leiria, was filled with enthusiasts to listen to Hélia Correia and José Riço Direitinho reading excerpts from their works, in this 3rd edition of dst – vivos nas livrarias. They also had the opportunity to debate the use of the portuguese language and its current challenges, creative writing and creative processes, culminating in an autograph session.

Silence as a musical possibility

The launch session of this new year of our international cycle of silence conferences could not have been more special! The pianist Joana Gama focused on the dichotomy of silence and music, in a broad sense – based on the thinking of John Cage -, and in a more limited sense, directly related to her musical practice.

Mondego Mobility System

The works on the SMM (Mondego Mobility System) are progressing at a good pace and were even the target of a visit by the still prime minister, António Costa. A project with a strong environmental impact, which envisages the implementation of a road public passenger transport system, entirely electric and on a dedicated channel, with a length of 42 kilometers, connecting Serpins, Lousã and Miranda do Corvo to Coimbra.
